

Fall 2015 UW Tacoma Environmental Science Seminar
“Managing the Puget Sound: Challenges & Opportunities”
Mondays 12:25 to 1:25 in SCI 309
Free and open to the public

Monday Oct 12

Craig Thomas, UW Evans School of Public Policy & Governance: Why Public, Private, and Nonprofit Organizations Collaborate on Environmental Issues

Monday Oct 26

Joel Baker, Science Director, Center for Urban Waters: What’s in Puget Sound? A Chemical Investigation of our Environment

Monday Nov 2

Scott Hansen, Vice President, Puget Creek Restoration Society: Can We Spark and Interest?

Monday Nov 16

Scott Redman, Science & Evaluation Program Director, Puget Sound Partnership: The Puget Sound Partnership’s 2015 State of the Sound Reports

Monday Nov 23

Bonnie Becker, Associate Professor, UW Tacoma SIAS: Dig-able Sound: protecting and restoring shellfish populations through larval ecology

Monday Nov 30

Stephanie Suter, Ecosystem Recovery Coordinator: Puget Sound Partnership: The Partnerships and Efforts Leading Ecosystem Recovery

Monday Dec 7

Julie Masura, Lecturer, UW Tacoma SIAS: It Takes a Village: Data Support from Citizen Science