Senate Updates:

Senator Velasco spoke for the Health and Wellness group. They have done some further work on the supplies and boards for health and wellness. They are beginning to work on their initiative and will be tabling soon.

Senator Allred spoke for the Safety group. The Safety group is currently working on three different things. A safety event, an escort system for late night on campus, and university budget research. All three members have been meeting with different people on campus.

Senator Yimesgen spoke for food equity. The group has set their goals and plan and put everything into plan for the rest of the year. The next few weeks will be spent understanding students' pantry opinions. They are planning on gathering info via random samples. They want to move the pantry from the CEI to student affairs. They have several plans ready to be set in motion depending on data. Senator Tran spoke up as well and let us know that the current pantry director is retiring. President Wetzel and Senator Tran have plans in motion.

Speaker Wicklund spoke for the outreach group, but he asked Senator Angell to speak on the Apple Cup. Speaker Wicklund let us know that he has been collecting signatures for the period project as well as that he is doing some work with his school of minor. As Senator Angell spoke up he let us know that he met with his dean and learned a bit about the budgeting for academics. As for the Apple Cup, he elaborated on his questionnaire for the Apple Cup.

Senate Updates:

Senator Amaya let us know that she and Senator Campbell have met with Bertha and Noah Carr from Milgard. They are actively involved in the assistance of an event that is being planned.

No other general updates were shared.

Advisor Updates:

No updates.

Chair Updates:

Director Song let us know that we will not be meeting next week. After next week she let everyone know that there will be a presentation from HSF to watch, as well as discussion for a new candidate for graduate senator. She reminded the senate that if they would like something to add to the agenda that they can do so before Tuesday every week.

Adjournment:

Director Song adjourned the meeting at 10:18 am.
