Senate Updates:

Senator Mujica spoke for Health and Wellness. He is working with Senator Velasco-Cosare sending out emails for the wellness fair and more information on that such as fundraising for events.

Senator Challinor talked with Director Duncan about marketing for the wellness event.

Senator Angell spoke for Outreach. Him and Director Duncan got the CEF proposal approved and will be moving forward with advertising and will be working on getting that as fast and efficient as possible.

Senator Wicklund talked about an organization that will do therapy dogs and will not cost anything as they are donating their time. Currently waiting to hear back from them for the exact number of dogs they can send over and 3 dogs are confirmed and trying to get 4.

Senator Garcia spoke for food equity. Both sides of food equity met this week and shifted focus and developing messaging about resources and destigmatization.

Advisor Updates:

Advisor Conor let us know elections are coming. Candidate filing forms are due tomorrow at 5pm. The verification process will take place the week after the form closes. Campaigning will begin April 22nd and he discussed topics on the elections calendar such as the presidential debate. Discuss that many events and programs will also appear on dubnet.

Chair Updates:

Director Song let us that the Executive Meeting got cancelled. Next meeting will be an overview of the wellness week and hopefully get the volunteer sign up sheets done.

Adjournment:

Director Song adjourned the meeting at 12:51 pm
